

IRB SYNERGY

IRB BASICS COURSE

June 16-18 2008 | San Antonio TX

IRB Synergy supports IRB Professionals and those eager to improve their knowledge of human subjects protection by providing high quality, comprehensive courses presented by leaders in the field. Courses cover all the required elements of IRB review and determination as mandated by federal regulations.

IRB Synergy is a company dedicated to improving the intelligence of research regulatory software and providing top quality continuing education for research professionals. The Education Division provides a variety of courses such as the CIP® Certification/Recertification, Good Clinical Practices, and this IRB Fundamentals course, as high quality education/continuing education for IRB Professionals.

The courses are appropriate for those requiring an introduction to the detailed and dynamic world of Human Subjects Protection; those seeking a refresher course; and those seeking continuing education. The courses also allow us to simultaneously get the word out, about our software division, to the research community. IRB Synergy is a division of Research Wranglers, Ltd., a Texas Limited Liability Partnership.
